2 COURTS TO TRY SCHOFIELD CASES

Because Schofield Barracks is now the largest post in the army, and therefore productive of more cases than a single court martial can handle, two courts have now been detailed to sit at the same time. This is a distinct departure from ordinary procedure, and is one of the orders which mark the Department of Hawaii as distinctive.

Following are the details of the courts:

Lieut. Col. R. L. Hirst, Majors E. V. Smith and Joseph Frazier; Capt. Lister, Chamberlain and Burnett; Lieuts. Packer, Snow, McAndrew, Pridden, Longenecker, Silvester and Fales.

First Lieut. H. A. Wells is judge advocate of this court, which is composed entirely of infantry officers.

Field artillery and cavalry officers form the second court, as follows: Maj. J. M. Jenkins, Capt. Orton, Apple, Dixon and Elliott; Lieuts. Reh-kops, Winnia, Doak, Groninger, Mill-kin, Peyton and Bowley.

Second Lieut. W. C. Christy, Fifth Cavalry, is judge advocate.

The First Infantry band will render the following program at the residence of General Macomb at 8:30 o'clock this evening, under the direction of Chief Musician Joseph Feltrinelli:

March—Charter Oak Claus
Overture—Light Cavalry Suppe
Selection—Babes in Toyland.....Herbert
Waltz—Remembrance of Naples.....
Idyll—Golden Blonde Ellenberg
Fantasia—Journey Through Europe.....
Morceau—Flower Song Langley
Selection—Chocolate Soldier Straus
Rag—The Mysterious Rag Snyder
Patrol—The Crack Regiment.....Tobani

RATTLER STRIKES PROSTRATE MAN

STOCKTON, Cal., July 8. — Jack Monroe, a traveling salesman, was bitten by a rattlesnake here today. He rode into the country five miles north of town and rested under a fig tree. After eating a few figs he fell asleep in the shade of the tree.

He was awakened by something crawling over his face. He was horrified upon seeing a rattlesnake coiled upon his chest. The snake moved its head slowly back and forth. The rattles hummed through Monroe's head, as he afterward expressed it, "like a thousand bass drums." For fully 15 seconds the snake lay coiled, as though waiting for him to move.

Monroe struck at the rattler with his right hand and the snake buried its fangs in his flesh. He sucked the poison from the wound and then hailed a passing automobile. The driver hurried him to the emergency hospital and prompt attention undoubtedly saved his life.

MANAGER MCGREER SAID VICTIM OF SPITEWORK

Allegations of bigamy, made on the Coast against Robert R. McGreer, manager of the Liberty Theater here, are declared by Mr. McGreer and his friends to be a case of spite-work on the part of a woman who calls herself Mrs. Florence Blake McGreer and who at present is living in California.

The Coast papers arriving today give detailed accounts of a suit for divorce filed in the Superior Court of San Francisco on June 27 last, by the woman calling herself Mrs. McGreer. Friends of the theatrical manager here will remember that six months ago he wedded Miss Ollie Sherlock, a member of the Hughes company.

The accounts of the Coast papers differ materially, and McGreer's friends say that the suit brought for divorce was largely to "hold up" the manager. The Coast advises that the news of McGreer's marriage was brought to San Francisco by Mr. and Mrs. Roy Edwards, theatrical people, and Mrs. Florence King, Mrs. Edwards' mother. Mrs. King is given as Miss Sherlock's mother, in one paper, while in another Mrs. Edwards is said to be the mother. The Mrs. McGreer who has filed the divorce suit declares that she married McGreer on April 25, 1905, and that there is a six-year-old son, for whose custody she is asking.

Mr. McGreer has placed the matter in the hands of attorneys here, stating that the case is very plainly one of blackmail or spite-work. "Proofs have been forwarded to San Francisco showing that the records of marriages at Manila, where this woman says we were married, contain no record of any ceremony," he said today. "The truth is simply that this woman, whom I knew in the Orient, is doing this for spite-work."

Prominent Cubans arriving from Havana by the steamship Saratoga were unanimous in their belief that the insurrection of the black element in Cuba is crushed.
